

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

THRIVE IN FORT WORTH

FORT WORTH OFFERS A FORMIDABLE ENVIRONMENT FOR SPECIALIZED TALENT AND OPPORTUNITY

MARKET OPPORTUNITIES

- Projected regional job growth of 13% over the next five years (EMSI)
- 160 Inc. 5,000 firms based in North Texas region
- Strong developer interest in New Class-A Office Development
- Growth in professional and executive housing
- Texas Christian University (TCU) Neeley School of Business: Ranked No. 15 Best Undergraduate Program for Entrepreneurship 2020 (Princeton Review)

FORT WORTH ADVANTAGES

- Strong demand for Professional Services as the underlying support structures for innovation and growth
- Diversified industry base in Fort Worth
- Expanding variety of industries: transportation, logistics, energy, real estate, finance, manufacturing, hospitality and healthcare
- Strong talent labor pool (STEM) within 45-minute drive
- Attractive amenities, high quality of life and strong employee retention
- 13.8 million sq. ft. of downtown office space (5.8M Class-A)

As the nation's 13th largest city and growing, Fort Worth offers an abundance of amenities and deep talent supply. The Professional Services sector from accounting, design, and engineering to computer programming is also well-supported to anchor growth within emerging and established industries.

FORT WORTH ADVANTAGES

- 7% of Berkshire Hathaway portfolio companies are headquartered in Fort Worth representing 11.2% of revenue from operating businesses (Berkshire Hathaway)
- Significant community investment in Downtown and surrounding districts creating strong quality of life
- More than $100 million TIF-supported public improvements in Central Business District
- Approximately $52 million TIF-supported public improvements in Fort Worth's Near Southside
- $300+ million in City-supported private investment revitalizing Fort Worth's West 7th district
- $10.5+ billion invested in AllianceTexas, a 26,000-acre master planned development in North Fort Worth that is home to Alliance Airport, the multimodal logistics hub, The Mobility Innovation Zone, enterprise data centers and corporate campuses

REPRESENTATIVE COMPANIES

Jacobs
Ernst & Young
Weaver
PWC
Half Associates
Deloitte
Burns & McDonnell
Huitt-Zollars

Kimley-Horn
Freese & Nichols
DynCorp
KPMG
Whitley Penn
Cantery Hanger
Dunaway
BDO

Kelly, Hart & Hallman
Higginbotham
HDR Engineering
PAVLOV Advertising
Pape-Dawson Engineering
Bennet Benner Partners
Charles Schwab

11%

GROWTH

In Professional Services
over the past five years
(EMSI)

41,502

PROFESSIONAL JOBS

(EMSI)

$6.8B

TOTAL GROSS REGIONAL PRODUCT

(EMSI)